Criteria for setting up a Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame

Purpose

The Divine Child community will recognize DC individuals who have made personal and professional contributions to the DC community and society at large. These individuals have helped society and have distinguished themselves by virtue of their character and moral beliefs.

Before this DAHOF can move forward it must first be approved by the DC administration and religious community.

Questions I would like others to answer

How do we go back 50 years to find quality individuals-Do we have a process?

How do we keep politics out of the process?

Criteria

1. Must be at least 10 years removed from their DC graduation date
2. Documented contributions to society
3. Have made a contribution to his/her profession in one or all of the following areas:
 - a. leadership
 - b. publications
 - c. community service
 - d. recognized by peers as an outstanding professional
 - e. promotes the philosophy and ideas of DC

Selection Process

Develop a letter explaining the DAHOF

Nominations can be submitted by an individual, group, parent, or organization

Develop a Nomination Form which is comprehensive but not overwhelming
